

Health Estates - HTM 2020 Transition to 06/02

Suitably experienced personnel nominated for appointment as AP (electrical) with respect to LV distribution equipment.

Course Code C163

Delegates who attend the course should have a firm understanding of basic electrical principles and theory. The course has an external practical element - delegates are advised to bring outdoor protective clothing. Evening exercises will be conducted.

A variety of manufacturers low voltage switchgear is installed for practical work

Cost: £call us

FREE RESITS!

Venue: Schneider Electric
Coventry, West Midlands.

Local well appointed hotel accommodation – within fifteen minutes of the training facilities

Duration: 5 days

Venue: Schneider Electric,
Coventry, West Midlands

Delegates will be introduced to electrical systems and the dangers which exist and can arise when operating and working on high voltage systems. A facility for examining equipment and gaining hands on operating experience will be available throughout the course.

Who will benefit?

All staff required to operate a live system on a Health Estate.

What will be covered?

The training will teach safe operating procedures relating to the operation and maintenance on a variety of manufacturers equipment. Delegates will be gain the required experience to issue documentation abiding by all legislation and specific to HTM 2020 recommended procedures, in addition to attaining the role of safety co-ordinator.

- Statutory safety regulations
- Health Estates Electrical Safety Rules and Procedures (HTM2020)
- Application of Electrical Safety Regulations to LV distribution systems
- Issue of Permit to Work, Sanction to Test
- Operating records and documentation
- Cable location and identification
- Testing - commissioning of LV electrical distribution equipment

For further information, contact Angela on 024 7684 7564

angela.pryor@gb.schneider-electric.com